Aloha everyone,

The big question on everyone's mind has been "What are the dates for next year's Haili Tournament?" Next year the DOE Spring Break and the University's Spring Break are two different weeks. The DOE Spring Break is from Mar. 15 – 21st and the University's is from Mar. 22 – 28th. Because of this dilemma we had to make a decision. Based on many factors we decided to keep it the same week as usually which is the last full week of March. The official dates are Mar. 22 – 27th.

We know that this affects the Juniors but we will just have to wait to see what happens. We know that teams from the outer islands will probably not be able to attend but we are still hoping to accommodate at least the Big Island teams.

The "B" division will begin on Wednesday, Mar. 24th and the rest of the divisions will be as usual starting with morning play on Thursday, Mar. 25th. Just to let you know that Friday, Mar. 26th is a holiday, Kuhio Day.

We're sorry for the inconvenience but the circumstances were beyond our control. We hope that you will still be able to participate and we look forward to seeing you next year.
